PROFILE

Wholesale Analyst at Christian Louboutin in Geneva, with a background in wholesale planning, buying and commercial analytics built over nearly three years at Ralph Lauren across EMEA and LATAM. I turn sales, sell through and forecast data into clear, decision oriented analysis. I hold the Financial Planning & Analysis Professional (FPAP) certification from the Corporate Finance Institute and an MSc from Bocconi University (110/110). Tools: Power BI, Power Query, Excel, SAP ERP, SQL.

EXPERIENCE

Associate Buyer | Wholesale Planning and Merchandising

JUN 2025 TO SEP 2025

- Owned assorting, pricing and forecasting for the Polo Menswear line.
- Monitored weekly business performance through sell in, sell out and gross margin, and benchmarked decisions against competitors and the wider market.
- Prepared and presented the assortment at line opening meetings.
- Worked with Global Merchandising to define seasonal assortment needs, and supported business development projects.

Assistant Buyer | Wholesale Planning and Merchandising

SEP 2023 TO JUN 2025

- Built 5 weekly financial and performance dashboards (Power BI, Excel, Power Query) tracking sales, margins, deliveries and KPIs across 7 EMEA regions and APAC, distributed to top management.
- Automated end to end reporting workflows, reducing time to insight by 70% and enabling deeper regional granularity.
- Developed region-level rolling forecasts and sell-in/sell-out variance analyses, improving category forecast accuracy by double digits.
- Delivered ad hoc financial analyses and budget-support reports to senior leadership.
