Financial Analyst

Analytical and detail-oriented professional with over three years of experience in business analytics, forecasting, and reporting across EMEA and LATAM wholesale operations. Skilled in building automated dashboards and profitability analyses (Power BI, Excel, Power Query, SAP) that support stock, sales, and commercial decision-making across multiple markets. MSc in Economics & Management from Bocconi University (110/110). See a live example of my analytics work at silviodirubbo.github.io/meridian: a full case study covering budgeting, forecasting, and sell-out tracking across wholesale and DTC channels, built in Excel and Power BI.
